Luke Pothier

Cape Town, South Africa

 +27 83 701 1902 • ✉ lukepothier@gmail.com • 🌐 lukepothier.com

I'm a software engineer with more than six years of professional experience building bespoke mobile applications, web applications, and back-end software systems. I have experience working within and leading scrum development teams working on several projects for a wide variety of clients. I have released several open-source software projects in my personal capacity. I have been closely involved with technical training programmes for developers.

Professional experience

Full Stack   Cape Town, South Africa
Head of Development   November 2018 – August 2020

- Leading Full Stack's development department, which comprises 20-25 developers.
- High-level oversight of 5-10 separate projects at any given time.
- Performing a technical leadership role on several projects concurrently.
- Daily coding and code reviewing.
- Management duties associated with being a member of the company's management committee.

Full Stack   Cape Town, South Africa
Software Developer   August 2014 – November 2018

- Working in small developments teams, sometimes as a technical lead.
- Performing code review with team members.

Education

Bachelor of Social Sciences in Philosophy and Economic History   University of Cape Town
Cape Town, South Africa   2011 – 2013

Languages

- C#: Expert
- Java: Proficient
- JavaScript/TypeScript: Proficient
- HTML/CSS: Proficient
- SQL: Proficient
- Kotlin: Capable
- Python: Capable

References

- Andrew La Grange, Managing Director of Full Stack: andrew.lagrange@fullstack.co.za.